This Office Action is in response to the amendment filed on June 8, 2005.

Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ohuchi et al. (newly cited United States Patent 6,566,747 to Ohuchi et al. – hereafter Ohuchi).

With respect to independent claim 6, Ohuchi discloses a semiconductor package (see the entire patent, including the Fig. 1 disclosure), comprising: a substrate unit 1 having an upper surface, a lower surface, a side surface connecting the upper surface and the lower surface, a plurality of circuit traces 22 formed on the upper surface, and a plurality of contacts formed on the side surface and electrically connecting to the circuit traces (note column 4, lines 40-44); and a chip 20 having an active surface and a back surface, and disposed on the upper surface of the substrate and electrically connected to the substrate.

Claim 6 is thus rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ohuchi.

Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Larson et al. (already of record United States Patent 3,311,791 – hereafter Larson).

With respect to independent claim 14, Larson discloses a substrate unit 14 adapted to a semiconductor package (see the entire patent, including the Fig. 2 disclosure), comprising: an upper surface; a lower surface opposed to the upper surface; a side surface connecting the upper surface and the lower surface; a plurality of circuit traces 12 formed on the upper surface; a plurality of recesses 15a formed on the side surface and electrically connected to the circuit traces; and a metal layer 15 formed on one of the recesses, wherein the metal layer comprises a copper layer, a nickel layer or¹ a gold layer (see column 2, lines 4-12).

Claim 14 is thus rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Larson.

Claims 7 and 8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable over the prior art of record if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 1-5 and 9-13 are allowable over the prior art of record.

The applicant remarks: "Applicant wishes to direct the Examiner's attention to MPEP §2131 which states that to anticipate a claim, the reference must teach every element of the claim." However, the applicant does not actually dispute that Larson teaches every element of claim 14 as originally filed or as currently amended. In any event, the examiner respectfully directs the applicant's attention to the above rejection of amended claim 14 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Larson, which explains how Larson teaches every element of amended claim 14.

Registered practitioners can telephone the examiner at (571) 272-1843. Any voicemail message left for the examiner must include the name and registration number of the registered practitioner calling, and the Application/Control (Serial) Number. Technology Center 2800's general telephone number is (571) 272-2800.
